News

*

Ernie Matthews is retiring from the Financial Secretary position after nine years in that position. A tentative replacement has been identified and the position will be posted with all other candidates for the 23/24 fraternal year when elections are held in May. If you are interested in any of the officer positions please let one of the Trustees listed on the front page know of your interest.

*

A late note. The Santa Social in December was “an amazing success” with over 300 individuals served.
